

Spinclusion Friendship Tree

Just like the leaves on the Friendship Tree

We are all different as you can see

The colours are different and so are the words

Just like every one of us in this world

But together they make this beautiful tree

Including everyone, including me

So remember these words when you see

This unique and wonderful friendship tree

Mia McGowan, Community Living Toronto

